

Mint of the United States at Philadelphia, Pa.,

ASSAY DEPARTMENT;

May 22, 1889.

Dear Sir

In reference to the request of the Director of the Mint, asking that I shall aid Mr. Pound in some further experience in assaying, pending his nomination as Assayer to the Mint Bureau, I would suggest that by placing his name upon the pay roll of my department, (even though it may be temporary), would further this object in a degree above any other plan which I could suggest. In the first place Mr. Pound would be directly under my control in all his movements, and could be entrusted with any work which might be placed in his hands, which could not be done with a mere visitor or onlooker. In the second place I desire to fit Mr. Pound eminently

Mint of the United States at Philadelphia, Pa.,

ASSAY DEPARTMENT,

, 188

for the position to which he has been nominated, as well as to do the best I can for the Mint Bureau. In the third place we are pressed to the utmost in this department, with the large amount of work of late, especially with the Silver, and in Mr. Pound we would have a valuable and much needed help.

Very respectfully
Jacob B. Eckfeldt
Assayer

Hon. Daniel M. Fox
Superintendent

NARA RG104, Entry 1, Box 157

Mint of the United States at Philadelphia, Pa.,
Assay Department;
May 22, 1889

Dear Sir

In reference to the request of the Director of the Mint, asking that I shall aid Mr. Pound in some further experience in assaying, pending his nomination as Assayer to the Mint Bureau. I would suggest that by placing his name upon the pay roll of my department, (even though it may be temporary), would further this object in a degree above any other plan which I could suggest. In the first place Mr. Pound would be directly under my control in all his movements, and could be entrusted with any work which might be placed in his hands, which could not be done with a mere visitor or onlooker. In the second place I desire to fit Mr. Pound eminently for the position to which he has been nominated as well as to do the best I can for the Mint Bureau. In the third place we are pressed to the utmost in this department, with the large amount of work of late, especially with the Silver, and in Mr. Pound we would have a valuable and much needed help.

Very respectfully,
Jacob B. Eckfeldt
Assayer

Hon. Daniel M. Fox
Superintendent